

International Education Week: November 12 – 16, 2007 For All LSU Students

International Education: Promoting global citizenship and respect

The ICC is located at 3365 Dalrymple Drive. Questions – Call Jane Chandler at 578-8348 or e-mail International Studies Society – lsu.iss@gmail.com

Monday, 12	Tuesday, 13	Wednesday, 14	Thursday, 15	Friday, 16
Tower of Babel 3:00-5:00, Atchafalaya Room LSU foreign language professors demonstrate the fun and power of language. Lost In Translation: How To Communicate Cross-Culturally トラ 6:30-8:30 , Peabody 225 Conference Room A panel of experts will give tips on how to succeed in the global market. 老虎 Discussants: LSU professors, Dr. Jill Brody, Dr. Li Li, Dr. Jean Brager, and graduate student Yves Damoiseau رحمن Food following the discussion Tıyın	Mini-expo: ASIA 11:00-1:00, Free Speech Alley Food, performances, and student representatives from Asia. LSU Union International Committee A Bird's Eye View of Iraq: Int'l Studies Speaker Series 5:30-7:00, E137 Howe-Russell Showcasing International Talent 🎵 By international and American students 🎵 7:30 – 10:00, International Cultural Center 🎵 Belly, tap, and other dance. Harp, piano, and much more. 🎵	Hair Braiding 11:00-2:00, Free Speech Alley Nigerian Students Association Film & Discussion: "Enough!" Global Film Initiative Presented by Dr. Mustapha Marrouchi, LSU English Dept 6:00 – 9:00, Design Building Auditorium 103 Set in war-torn Algeria (1990s), a young woman doctor searches for her husband who has disappeared. Her friend, a nurse, travels with her across the picturesque landscapes of Algeria. The 2 women ignore curfews, danger and threats as their search leads them to understand how their country's history has shaped their lives. Food served after the presentation	International Game Night 7:30, Broussard Aquarium Games from Mauritius, dominoes, and more. Refreshments will be served. (Residential students only) French Culture in Louisiana 7:30, Evangeline Foods of Louisiana with French influence and conversation about French in Louisiana, with emphasis on Cajun culture (Residential students only)	Potluck: A Taste of Diversity 5:30-7:00, Howe-Russell Atrium Food from around the world. Bring your favorite international dish or just your appetite. Sponsors of 2007 IEW – Office of International Development, International Studies Society, International Cultural Center, Reslife, Foreign Language Dept. International Studies Dept., LSU Union International Committee, Career Services, Faculty Senate International Education Committee, International Student Association.