Brazilian Capoeira-Martial Art

Capoeiristas: Capoeira Club of LSU: Russell Fielding, Autumn Crossett, others

Instruments: Berimbau, atabaque, pandeiros, agogo, reco-reco

Capoeira is a rhythmic martial art that originated among the African slaves in Brazil and was disguised as a dance. The moves are never choreographed – everything you see is spontaneous and freeform.

Those interested in learning some of these moves are invited to remain at the end of the demonstration.

PLEASE JOIN US FOR REFRESHMENTS AND A PINATA IN THE HEGLER ROOM AFTER THE TALENT PROGRAM.
